

Back by popular demand A Weekend of Belly Dance Workshop & World Dance Show

Paola Blanton, Movement Disciple

International dance scholar Paola Blanton hails from Macedonia, the US, Brazil, and most recently, Malaysia. Her life journey has taken her around the world as part of an international teaching team with her husband Gary.

Paola's roots are in the folkloric dances of the Balkans. Her passion for Oriental Dance ignited in Chicago, 1992, taking her on an epic journey of discovery. On the way, her personal style bloomed in South American and Asian-flavored varieties, but always centers on her enduring love of Middle Eastern dance and music.

She discovered the teachings of Isadora Duncan whose philosophy crystallized the practices, attitudes, and skills of the Dancer of the Future, "one whose body and soul have grown so harmoniously together that the natural language of that soul will have become the movement of the body."

Paola welcomes you on a musical, rhythmic, kinetic, magical journey. From folklore to fusion to conceptual, you will find unique elements and approaches that she welcomes you to make your own. Spirit, emotion, technique, and style are rendered in a well-researched, inspiring, yet lighthearted format dedicated to student discovery and enjoyment.
